

A Feast of Friendship

Have you ever tried hosting the Nineteen Day Feast?

Here's an idea for a theme.

Question: Why is the Feast like a sandwich??????

Answer: Because it has 3 parts and is full of good things!

Devotional part

Consultation part

Social part

Before the Feast starts you must greet everyone in a friendly way. You could present everyone with a gift of a flower. (See next page)

1. The first part of the Feast is always the devotional part. You will need to choose some prayers and readings from Bahá'u'lláh and 'Abdu'l-Bahá about friendship. You could copy them onto cards, and decorate them nicely with bright colours.
2. The second part is the consultation. This is usually chaired by the Chairman of the Spiritual Assembly. You could ask if you could help.
3. The social part of the Feast is for refreshments and is a chance for everyone to enjoy the company of the others. After giving out nice things to eat and drink you could give everyone a friendship box with sweets inside. (See the following pages)

Don't forget the music!
