Subscriptions and Donations: Dayspring is distributed free to all Bahá'í registered children in the United Kingdom between the ages of five and thirteen. Children of this age in the UK who are not registered may also receive it free at the request of a Bahá'í parent or guardian. It is also sent free to the children of pioneers from the UK.

Others may subscribe as follows:

UK:	£10 for 6 issues
Overseas:	£17 for 6 issues

Cheques should be made payable to the N.S.A. of the Bahá'ís of the UK and sent to Wendy Keenan at her address under Distribution above.

Acknowledgements

The artist of "Galahad Rides out of Camelot" on p.9 is Edmund H. Garnett (1853–1929).

The puzzle on p.18 was devised by Iain Parris.

The information on the Channel Isles was kindly supplied by Pauline Senior from Guernsey.

The drawing of the knight picture to colour in was done by Mary Firman.

Lesson Plan 5 on Huqúq'ulláh is reproduced here with the permission of the Board of Huqúq'ulláh in Europe. This is the last lesson in this series.
