

DAYS PRING

A Bahá'í Magazine for Children
Issue 58

Dayspring

The children's Bahá'í magazine of the UK, produced under the auspices of the National Spiritual Assembly of the Bahá'ís of the United Kingdom.

Sending material for publication:

Stories, letters, poems, news and articles should be sent to the editor at the address below.

N.B. Photographs of children: Under the terms of the Child Protection Act, great care must be taken in the publishing of images of children. Parental permission must be received. Permission cannot be implied by the sending of a photograph but must be given in writing or by email direct from the child's parent or guardian.

Editor

Jackie Mehrabi, 95 Georgetown Road, Dumfries, DG1 4DG, Scotland, U.K.

Email: dayspring@Bahai.org.uk Tel. 01387-249264

Subscriptions, Donations, and Distribution

Wendy Keenan, 96 Lundavra Road, Fort William, PH33 6JU, Scotland, UK.

Email: wendy@keen9.fsnet.co.uk

Dayspring is distributed free to all Bahá'í registered children in the United Kingdom aged five to twelve years old. Children of this age in the UK who are not registered may also receive it free at the request of a Bahá'í parent or guardian. It is also sent free to children of pioneers from the UK.

Others may subscribe as follows: UK: £10 for 6 issues
 Overseas: £17 for 6 issues

Cheques should be made payable to the National Spiritual Assembly of the Bahá'ís of the United Kingdom and sent to Wendy Keenan at her address above.

Printer: Printsmith, Fort William. Tel. 01397-700330

Acknowledgements

Extracts from the story "Friends for Peace" are from the book entitled Animals for Peace by Kiser Barnes and reprinted here with the kind permission of the author. Animals for Peace is published by the Bahá'í Publishing Trust, New Delhi, India.

The song about knights on pages 14 and 15 and the two puzzles on pages 16 and 17 were contributed by Maggie Manvell.

The puzzle on page 21 was contributed by Iain Parris.

The news story under "People and Places" was adapted and condensed from ONE COUNTRY, the Newsletter of the International Bahá'í Community.

July–October 2004