

Dayspring

A children's magazine produced under the auspices of the National Spiritual Assembly of the Bahá'ís of the United Kingdom.

Sending material for publication:

Stories, letters, poems, drawings, news and articles should be sent to the editor at the address below.

N.B. Photographs of children: Under the terms of the Child Protection Act, great care must be taken in the publishing of images of children. Parental permission must be received. Permission cannot be implied by the sending of a photograph but must be given in writing or by email direct from the child's parent or guardian.

Editor: Jackie Mehrabi, 95 Georgetown Road, Dumfries, DG1 4DG, Scotland, UK.
Email: dayspring@bahai.org.uk Telephone: 01387-249264

Subscriptions, donations and distribution:

Wendy Keenan, 96 Lundavra Road, Fort William, PH33 6JU, Scotland, UK.
Email: wendy@keen9.fsnet.co.uk

Dayspring is distributed free to all Bahá'í registered children aged five to twelve in the United Kingdom. Children of this age in the UK who are not registered may also receive it free at the request of a Bahá'í parent or guardian. It is also sent free to the children of pioneers from the U.K.

Others may subscribe as follows:

UK: £10 for 6 issues
Overseas: £17 for 6 issues

Cheques should be made payable to the N.S.A. of the Bahá'ís of the U.K. and sent to Wendy Keenan at her address under Subscriptions above.

Acknowledgements

"The Story of Angie the Rabbit" by Lou Turner was formatted by Maggie Manvell.

The stories under "People and Places" were adapted from The Baha'i World News Service.

The picture to colour on page 19 is from Flickerings by Kel Dominey, and reprinted here with the kind permission of the author and the National Spiritual Assembly of Australia.

November 2004–February 2005
Issue 59