

A Report by Lucy Bird, aged 9

On Saturday 22 May there was a Scottish Bahá'í Gathering in Inverness. I went to it and it was GOOD. I really liked it. I saw lots of new people and learnt new Bahá'í songs. My mum sold LOADS of cards. We had children's classes. Somebody came with lots of musical instruments and told us stories too.

At the end we all had cake, and Nadine and I played hide and seek.

This poem was written by Michael Cook, who is six years old. He wrote it especially for a Ridvan party.

Love

I love Bahá'u'lláh, `Abdu'l-Bahá and The Báb
I love also Shoghi Effendi and God

They are the best on Heaven and Earth
I love them all, they are great

Yes They are
Yes They are

I think They are kind and generous

Yes They are
Yes They are
