

Quotations Quiz Answers

Humility exalteth man to the heaven of glory and power, whilst pride abaseth him to the depths of wretchedness and degradation.

Bahá'u'lláh

Hear Me, ye mortal birds! In the rose garden of changeless splendour a flower hath begun to bloom compared to which every other flower is but a thorn.

Bahá'u'lláh

One word is like unto springtime, causing the tender saplings of the rose garden of knowledge to become verdant and flourishing, while another word is even as a deadly poison.

Bahá'u'lláh

Meditate on that which We have, through the power of truth, revealed unto thee, and be thou of them that comprehend its meaning.

Bahá'u'lláh

It is incumbent upon the mothers to rear their little ones even as a gardener tendeth his young plants.

'Abdu'l-Bahá

If love and agreement are manifest in a single family, that family will advance, become illumined and spiritual.

'Abdu'l-Bahá

We must strive to change our bad qualities into good ones, quick-temper must be changed into calmness, pride into humility, falsehood into truth, deceit into frankness, laziness into activity.

'Abdu'l-Bahá

Chant the words of God and, pondering over their meaning, transform them into actions!

'Abdu'l-Bahá
