

Long, long ago, when there were no cars or aeroplanes or television and people in one country did not know about people living in other lands, G _ _ sent His Messengers to the world. One was born in India and He was called K r _ _ _ _ . J _ _ _ was sent by God to the land of Palestine. In another land called Arabia, M u _ _ _ _ a d was born. All Messengers gave the same Promise from God, about the One who would come.

Then about a hundred and eighty years ago, strange things began to happen. One day countless stars began shooting across the sky.

There were two holy men in P _ _ _ _ who were like stars to the other people. They told them to watch for the Promised One. In the year 1819 Shaykh Ahmad told his friends that (on 20th October) God had given the world the precious gift of a baby boy called the _ á _, the Promised One everyone had been waiting for.

“I am the Lamp which the Finger of God hath lit...”

The Báb

What is the name of the Holy Day on 12th. November?

T _ _ B _ _ _ _ d a y o f
B _ _ á ' u ' _ _ á _

“We have permitted you to listen to music and singing... Rejoice in the joy of My Most Great Name through which the hearts are enchanted and the minds of the well-favoured are attracted.”

Bahá'u'lláh (Music, UHJ comp.4, p.3)

Homework

Fill in the blanks on the worksheet.

Take the worksheet to a Bahá'í meeting for some part of it to be read.

(The quotation from Bahá'u'lláh could be in the devotional part of the Feast.)