

Read this each day for the next week:

“To be a Bahá’í simply means
to love all the world;
to love humanity and try to serve it;
to work for universal peace and
universal brotherhood.”

‘Abdu’l-Bahá: Bahá’u’lláh & the New Era, p.69.

Learn the words of this song:

I love you.

I love you, can you say it? I love you, I dare you to!
I love you, anyway it sounds great to me.
I love you, can you say it? I love you, I dearly do;
I love you, anyway it sounds great to me.

There are many, many ways to say: “I love you” ev’ry day,
Help a friend, hug your cat; lend another friend your hat
And say: “I love you” today.

(repeat chorus)

Complete the following:

I must try to see the face of _ _ _ in everyone I meet.

I will try to serve the Bahá’í Faith by _____

I will try to teach the Bahá’í Faith by _____
