

Read this quotation morning and evening this week

“Know assuredly that My commandments are the lamps of My loving providence among My servants, and the keys of My mercy for My creatures.”

Bahá'u'lláh

Here is a story about Bahá'u'lláh when He was a child. Read the list of missing words first and see if you can put them in the story as you read it. Write them in the spaces.

The story:

At the a_____ of five or six Bahá'u'lláh had a dream. He told His father about it. In the dream He found Himself in a g_____. Huge birds were attacking Him from every side, but were unable to h_____ Him. He then went to the sea.

As He was s_____ the fish of the s_____ attacked Him. Again none of them harmed H_____.

Bahá'u'lláh 's father called in a famous seer. A seer was someone who could e_____ the meaning of dreams.

The seer said that the d_____ showed that Bahá'u'lláh would become the founder of a Great C_____. The leaders and the learned men throughout the world would a_____ Him, like the birds and the fish in the dream. But, like them, they would not be able to do Him any harm.

He finished by saying that Bahá'u'lláh would be victorious over a_____.
