

Read each morning and evening this week:

“One of the great steps towards universal peace would be the establishment of a universal language. Bahá’u’lláh commands that the servants of humanity should meet together, and either choose a language which now exists, or form a new one.”

‘Abdu’l-Bahá.

In the story the men all wanted the same thing, but used different words. See if you can make each bunch a different colour.

angoor

uzum

aneb

staphylion

grapes

Learn the following:

“The believers of God must assemble and associate with each other in the utmost love, joy, and fragrance.”

‘Abdu’l-Bahá.