

Parents: please help with this homework, including maintaining a prayerful attitude while saying a prayer or listening to others. The rest of this prayer will be given in later lessons.

Learn this first part of a prayer:

O God, guide me, protect me...

We must pray to God every day.

Colour these signs and their objects,
then join each sign to its object with a line.

We know God is there because
He created all these things.